

Provisional Employment Letter

Dear Mr. Mohammed Alsadah,

Congratulations once again on your acceptance into the Emerging Professor Program. Thank you for expressing your interest in joining the program and embarking on this exciting journey with us.

This provisional employment letter, once signed, will be valid until you graduate from your undergraduate degree at KFUPM. During this period, you will have three main responsibilities:

- 1) Complete the requirements of your ongoing undergraduate degree while maintaining or improving your current CGPA.
- 2) Participate in and complete the Emerging Professor Development Program.
- 3) Secure admission to a PhD program in one of the top 20 North American universities in your desired field of study according to QS World University Rankings by Subject, in coordination with your academic department. This must be done by the end of your undergraduate degree; otherwise, you will exit the program.

Upon successfully completing the above requirements, you will be offered the official Senior Graduate Assistant position at KFUPM.

Please read through the attached EPP guidelines for further information.

We wish you the very best on your EPP journey.

With best regards,

Dr. Mesfer M. Al-Zahrani
Vice President of Academic Affairs
